June to August temperatures reach high 70's, typically sunny and comfortable, ideal for outdoor activity, with shirts or light wear for days and sweaters or light jackets for evenings. Peak season often has mid-80 readings. October and the Spring months are in the mid-40's with a variety of casual dress suitable. Nov. & Dec. are in the mid-30's and mid-40's with coats or heavy jackets and gloves recommended through mid-March.

Travel Information System

ATTENTION TRAVELERS! Vermont has preserved the natural beauty of its countryside by eliminating all billboards. You will find the following alternative sources of information helpful:

To locate specific facilities in rural areas, look for Official Business Directional Signs which include facility name, distance from sign to facility, and direction.

Unmanned Travel Information Plazas (indicated by a T on this map) contain general state information and a state map.

Chambers of Commerce in many communities operate staffed offices or information booths (see listing).

Interstate Rest Area facilities & Welcome Centers provide travel literature about specific facilities and general state information. Personnel will be happy to assist you whenever possible.

Many individual Vermonters and local CB organizations are happy to assist travelers. Generally, Ch. 19 is monitored for travel information and Ch. 9 for emergency. Enjoy your trip!

Beverage Container Deposit Law

In 1973, Vermont enacted legislation against throwaway beer and soda containers. The law mandates a minimum 5-cent deposit on every beer and soda can or bottle sold in the state. There's a deposit on all bottles sold in Vermont whether or not labled, while all cans must be labeled on the top lid. This legislation has been overwhelmingly successful and roadside litter has been dramatically reduced. Visitors are reminded: you are entitled this refund upon redemption of your beverage container. Thank you for your cooperation.

Fish & Game Information

Vermont's great warmwater and coldwater fishing is in beautifully rugged, rural country. With more than 500 lakes and ponds and some 5,000 miles of fishable streams, it is impossible to overlook a backdrop of lush green mountains. Most of these clear clean waters rush toward Lakes Champlain and Memphremagog or the Connecticut River.

For the warmwater angler — big bass (both largemouth and smallmouth), northern pike often 10 to 15 pounds or up to 30 pounds, walleyes like nowhere else in New England and panfish going to waste. Coldwater species include a renowned landlocked salmon program in many of the large lakes with brook, brown, rainbow trout, and trophy-size lake trout rounding out the salmonids.

The Vermont Fish & Game Department provides a Guide to Fishing brochure free on request by writing to the Montpelier office's I & E Section 05602. A large map in the Guide pegs the species and quality of fishing to be expected in specific areas, answers questions most asked by Vermont fishermen, keys in other services and much more. And for those interested in hunting during the beautiful fall and winter seasons, a detailed companion Guide to Hunting is also available.

State Parks

Vermont has 40 state parks including 35 campgrounds and 35 day use areas. All areas have a resident ranger. Campgrounds offer leantos and tent sites, and most have flush toilets. Many have a resident naturalist who organizes walks, evening programs and a variety of other activities. Day use areas have beaches with lifeguard supervision, picnic sites and toilet and changing facilities. Many have snack bars. There are also opportunities for group camping and picnics.

Most areas are open from Memorial Day through Labor Day weekends. Some campgrounds are open earlier or later in the season. Contact the Montpelier office or the individual park for specific hours and dates of operation.

The Department of Forests, Parks and Recreation manages a total of 157,000 acres of forest and park land which offers opportunities for hunting, fishing, cross-country skiing, snowmobiling, hiking and primitive camping. For more information contact: The Department of Forests, Parks and Recreation, Montpelier, Vermont 05602 (828-3375).

Green Mountain National Forest

Vermont also has 290,300 acres managed by the U.S. Forest Service and traversed by 130 miles of the Appalachian and Long Trails. The Lye Brook and Bristol Cliffs Wildernesses contain 18,000 acres of primitive solitude. Use of off-road recreational vehicles is regulated. Ranger stations are located in Manchester Center, Middlebury and Rochester. For additional information, write to Forest Supervisor, Green Mountain National Forest, Federal Bldg., 151 West St., Rutland, VT 05701.
