

A photograph of a road surface showing a significant pothole. The pothole is located in the center-left of the frame, revealing a lighter-colored material beneath the dark asphalt. To the right of the pothole, there is a large, dark, irregularly shaped area on the road, possibly a spill or a shadow. In the background, a metal guardrail runs horizontally across the top of the image, with green foliage behind it. The date '08/28/2020' is printed in orange text at the bottom center of the image.
