

A photograph showing the underside of a wooden bridge deck. The deck is composed of numerous horizontal wooden planks. Two metal cross-braces, made of steel cables or rods, run diagonally across the deck, forming an 'X' shape. The bridge is supported by metal trusses visible at the bottom corners. The date '08/26/2020' is printed in orange text at the bottom center of the image.

08/26/2020